freedom is

OUR heritage

The University of Nevada library is a place to study or socialize, the freshman aren't sure.

Silas Ross Hall is just one of the four new structures which will be in use next year at the University of Nevada.

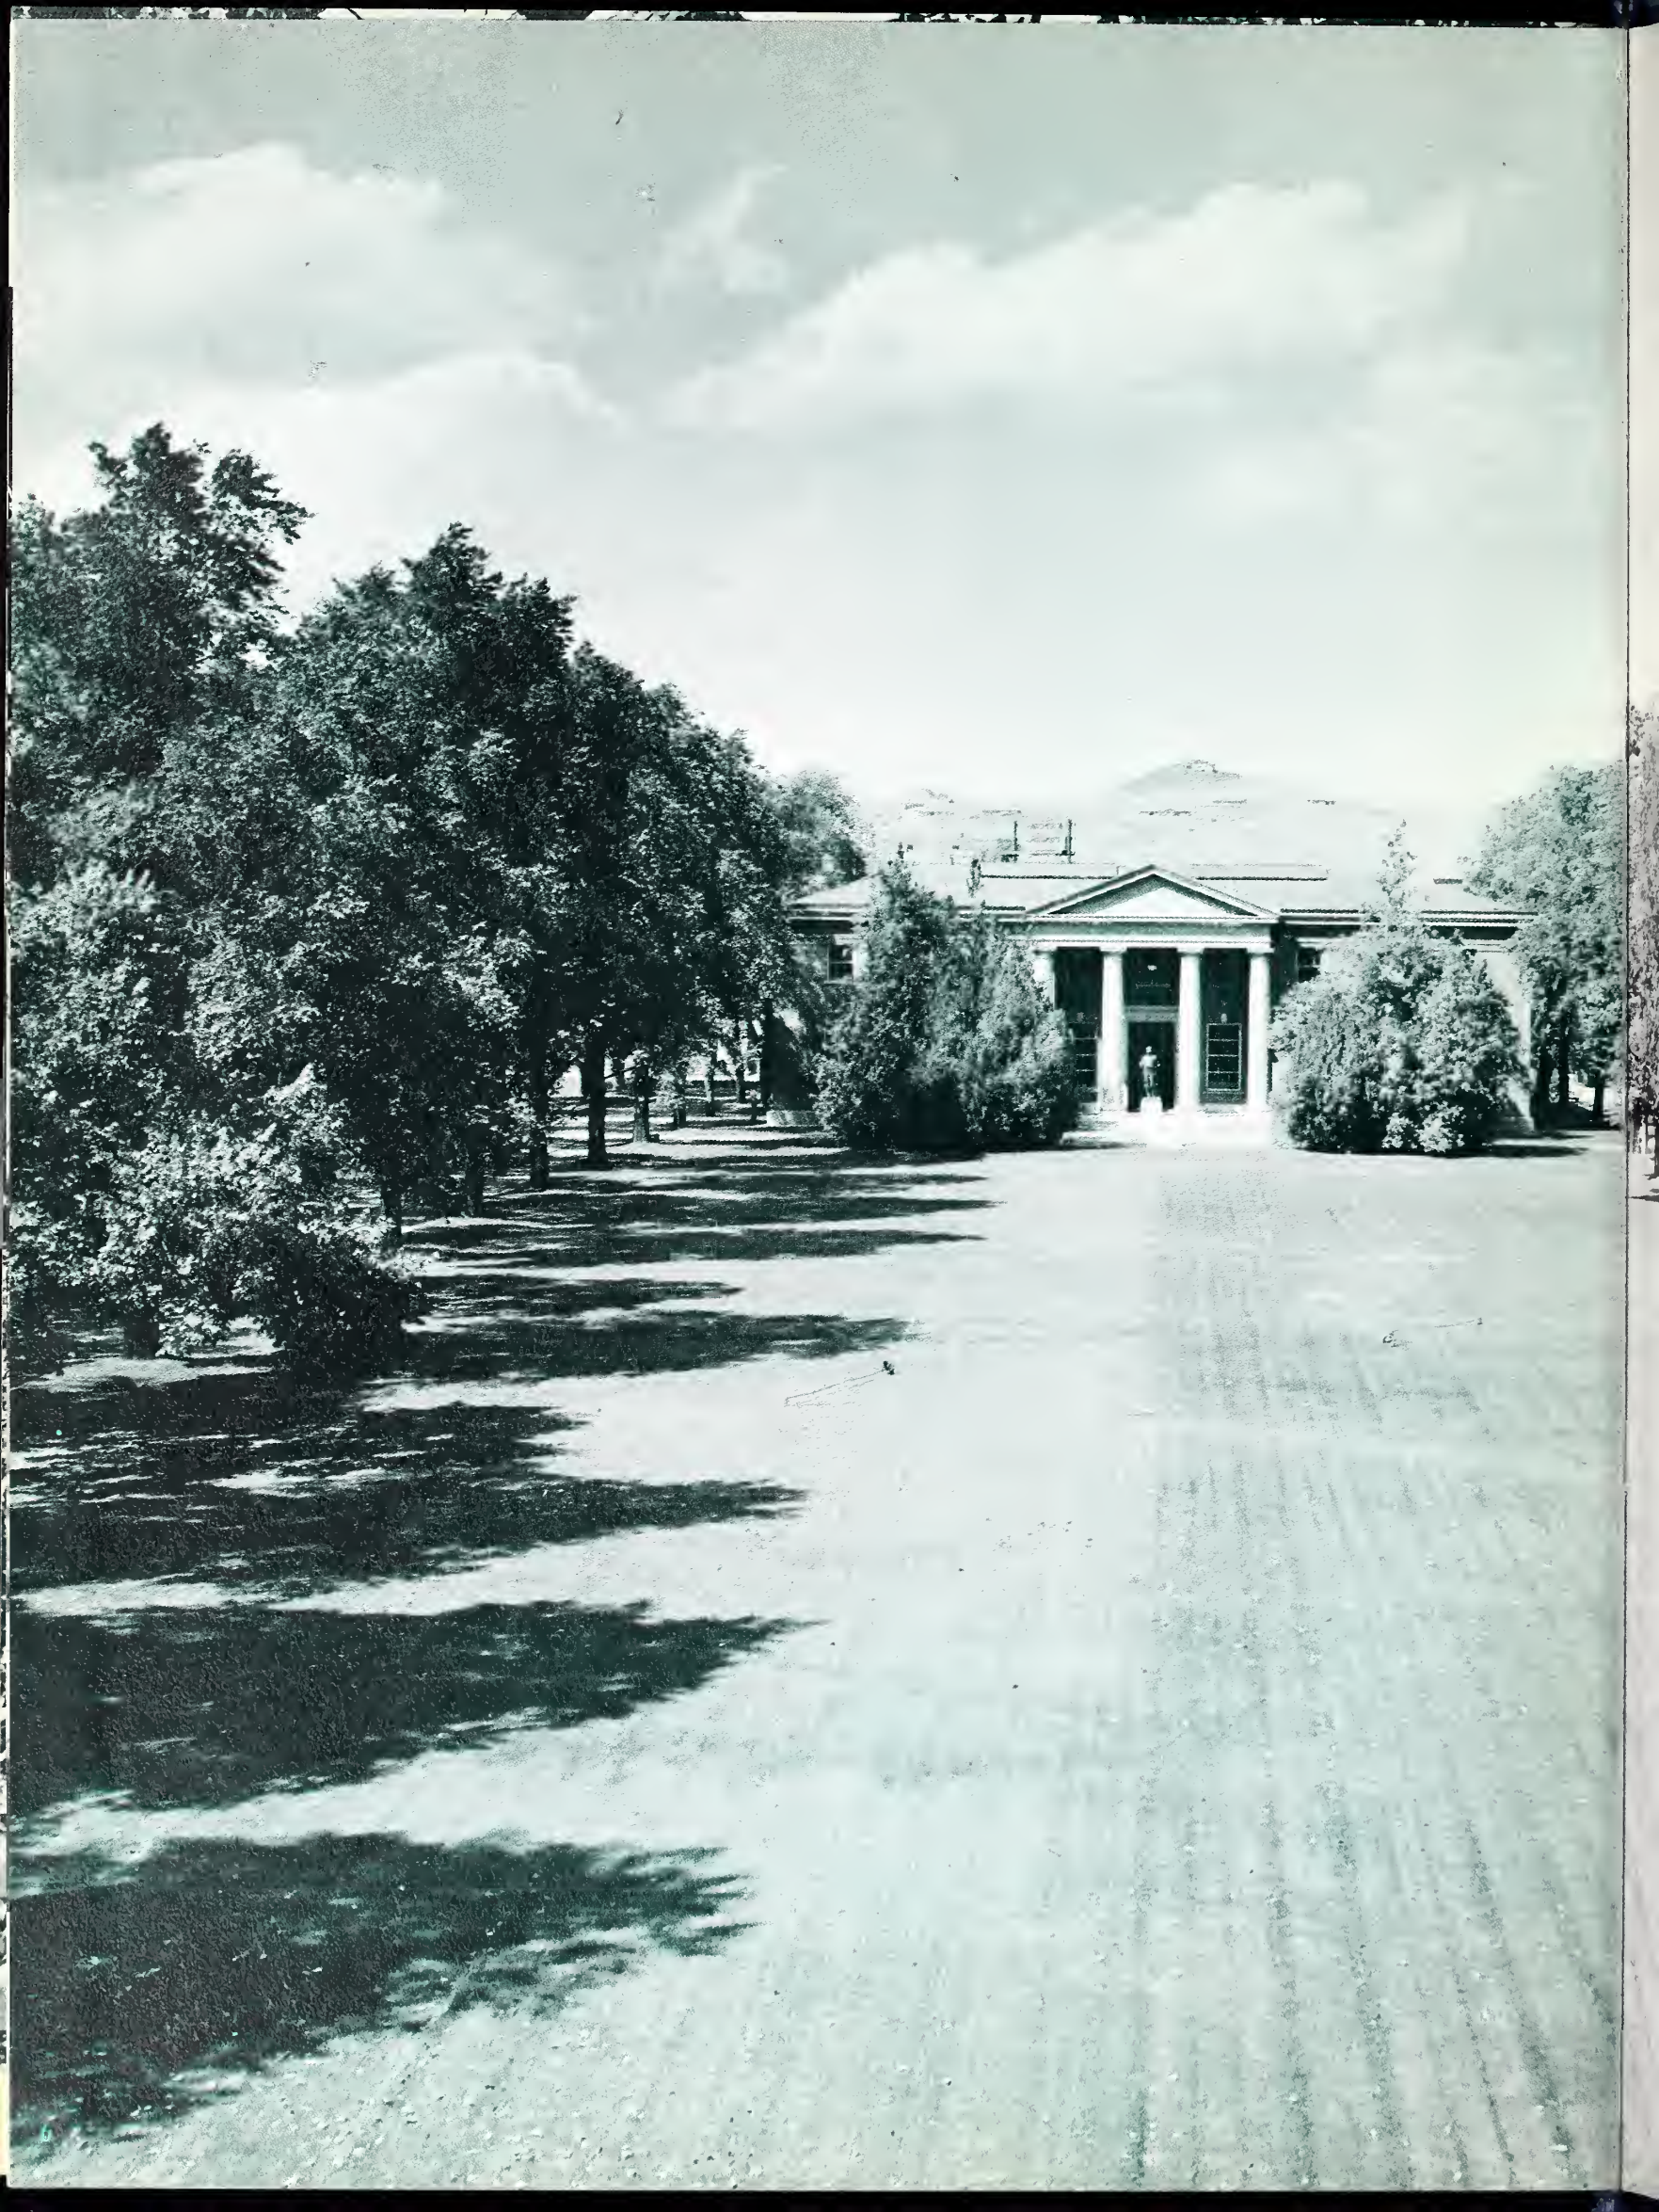

FORWARD

Many years from today one will be able to look in retrospect at the school year '56-'57 as one of many conflicts both nationally and internationally. While students attended classes this year, the Hungarians were fighting bravely for freedom from oppression, the mid-east was in turmoil and Nasser of Egypt made his bid for power, special sessions of the United Nations general assembly had front page headlines for months, race riots were common in the South, and President Eisenhower carried all but seven states in the presidential election.

Students at the college on the hill took part in America's Heritage of Freedom by an active participation in the national and state elections . . . many voted and many campaigned . .

Looking in retrospect will bring memories of friends, classes, and fun. Many years from today, however, the every day routine will have been lost in the unconscious and only the education received will maintain an uppermost place in life.

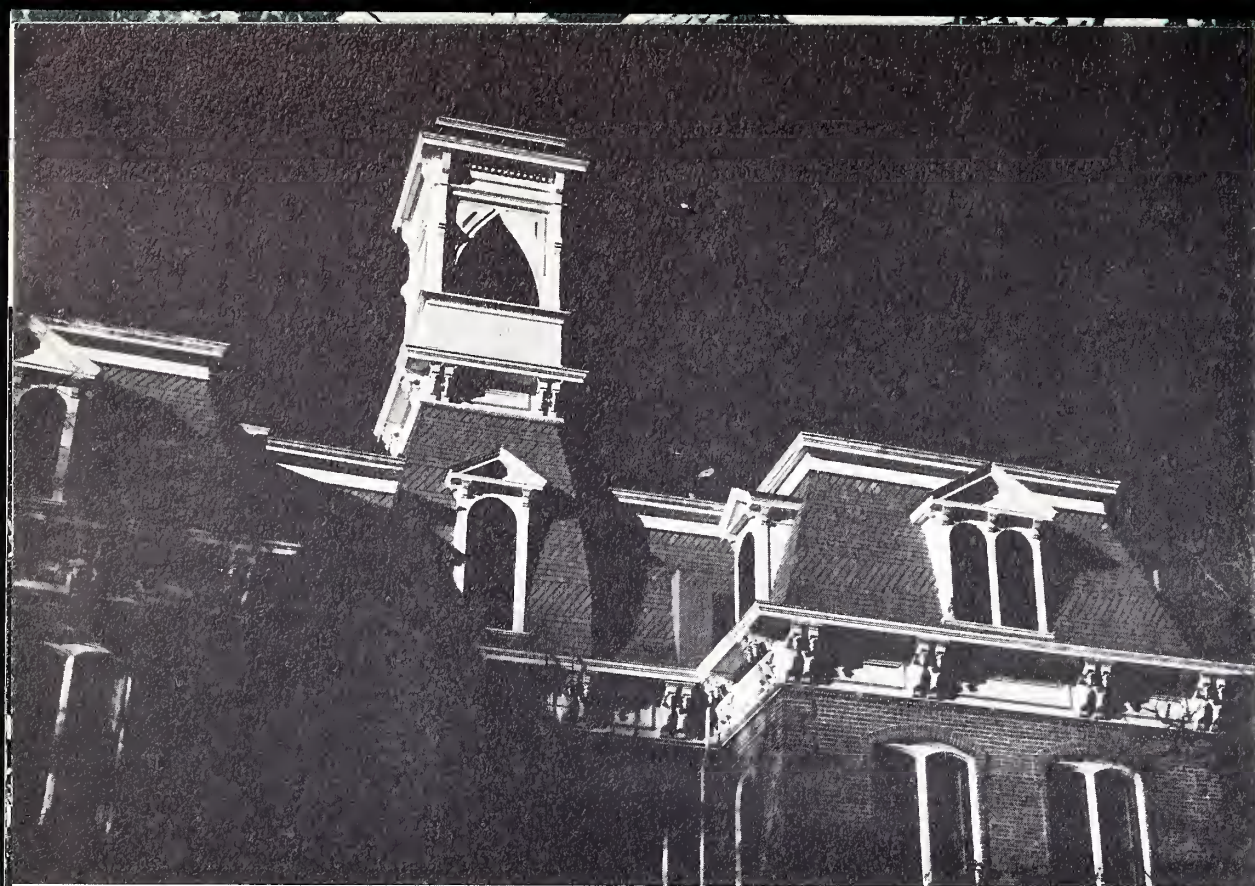

The positions attained tomorrow by University of Nevada students will range from housewife to politician. Regardless of position these alert, free, educated minds are the safeguard of America's HERITAGE OF FREEDOM. This heritage will be preserved by the educated, and defended by the enthusiastic patriot.

The most famous scene on campus is the quad which follows the plan of the University of Virginia. The statue of Mackay is looking in the direction of the Comstock load where he and many others made millions.

Snow silences the routine of the day.

One of the oldest buildings on campus is a reminder of the eight o'clock bell, administrative offices and the history of the University.

dedication

To the individuals and the spirit that is the University of Nevada, to those who have known this spirit and imparted it to others, to those who have educated and given students a heritage of free thought, and to those who will long remember with pride the college on the hill the '57 Artemesia is respectfully dedicated.

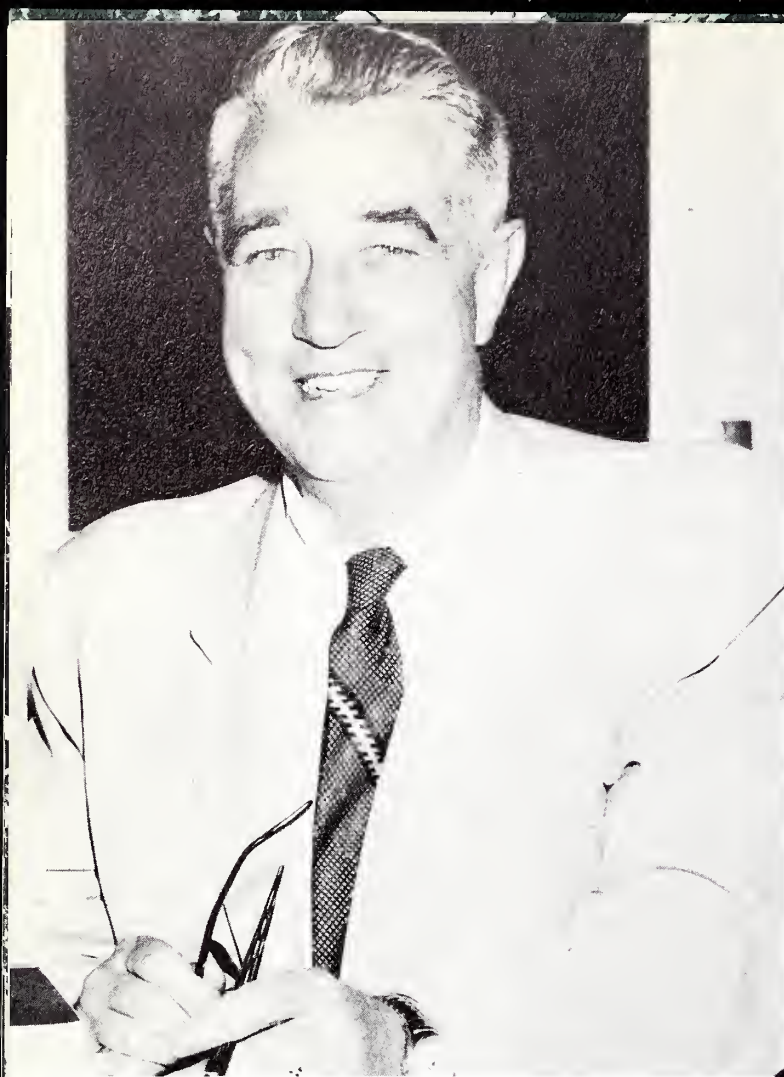

Natural and man-made beauty are combined in the United States capitol, the administration center of the government.

Freedom, the intangible . . . the moving, powerful force . . . from Greece, the magnificent cradle of man's quest for human dignity . . . it's hopes stirred the mind of man to new heights of thought and expression.

Governor Charles H. Russell

To the Students and My Fellow Alumni . . .

The State of Nevada is the fastest growing state in the Union, percentagewise, and so, the University of Nevada is growing in one of the greatest periods of expansion.

As we increase numerically so do our problems increase and the educational demands upon its only institution of high learning.

Our growth all adds up to the fact that advancement thus far can be attributed to the faith Nevadans have in their school and the courage they are showing in meeting financial and moral obligations as substantial citizens of the state.

As we grow, our goal must continue to be that of education and leadership in all of our endeavors.

For that leadership we look to and depend upon you.

CHARLES H. RUSSELL,
Governor.

President Minard W. Stout

It has been said that what sculpture is to a block of marble, education is to a man. The philosopher, the saint, the hero, the wise, and the good, or the great, very often lie hidden and concealed in a plebian, which a proper education might have disinterred and brought to light.

The purpose of this University is to enable each student to find and refine those worthy talents with which he is endowed.

MINARD W. STOUT, President,
University of Nevada.

A. C. Grant
Chairman

Like any large business, the university needs good control and policy making. This is the job of the Board of Regents. They are elected by the people of the State of Nevada, and serve without financial reward.

Chuck Coyle
ASUN President

Chuck Coyle, ASUN President, presides over the Senate and Executive Committee. Acting as ASUN representative at public functions and supervising other executive matters, he still has time to be interested in individual student problems. A Sun-downer?

Barbara Cavanaugh, ASUN Vice President, and president of the AWS Council, is also a member of the Executive Committee and is Deputy Chairman of the Senate.

Legislative

Operating under the executive branch of the ASUN Senate, the Executive Committee is composed of three senators, the ASUN President, Vice President, and Secretary.

Senators from each living group on campus, each college, the Student Union-Board and four senators at large, compose this filibustering organization.

George Allison
President

After the hassle of registration, painting the N, "swimming" in the lake, and obtaining names on "hello" tags, the freshmen settled down to a successful year under the leadership of George Allison. The class handled the high school presidential convention during April. Oh yes, the frosh also won the soph-frosh field day tug-of-war.

Tri-Delts started the year with a bang boasting three queens. . Military Ball, Homecoming, and Lambda Chi-Crescent queens. The skit in the Wolves Frolic copped the trophy for the best sorority skit. Bragging about their new house mother is a common occurrence. Their favorite word BONG! Tri-Delta was the gracious hostess to many homeless Pi Phi's in the middle of the year.

Gamma Phi housed many outstanding women on campus this year. Jan Chiatovich took one of the leads in "Kiss Me Kate," Charlyne Reid won the Nevada wool contest, Donna Fisher and Jan Chiatovich were Who's Who, and Gayle Sommer takes over Panhellenic presidency in May. "We're Off to Beat the Waves" was the slogan of the homecoming float, and "Norway, the Cradle of Skiing" was the title of the winter carnival decoration. Membership in this national military honor society is restricted to advanced R.O.T.C. students. The Military Ball was sponsored by the group, under the leadership of Captain Eugene Espin and the traditional stag dinner of venison was held. New members guarded the women's living quarters during initiation.

This group is composed of two technical societies, the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers. Activities included the annual E.E. banquet, participation in the traditional Engineer's Day, and sponsorship of student technical papers presented in national competition with other universities and colleges. Tom Mark "engineered" this group.

Activities for this organization included fall and spring picnics, a field trip to San Francisco, and one of the best-attended C.E. banquets in this region. Peter Artero presided at the monthly meetings at which guest speakers were featured. George Ball was the chapter's representative at an A.S.C.E. conference at San Jose.

home coming

Work begins early and fun lasts late when U. of N. homecoming time rolls around. Skits, pajama rallies, electing queen Beth, open houses, and many hours of good times as Nevada welcomes home the grads.

home coming skits

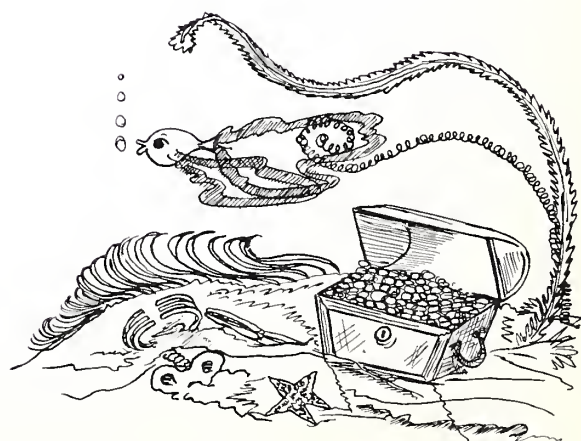

SAE's put the audience into an election spirit with "Get Out And Vote."

Kappa Alpha Theta "proudly presented" Sweet Shop Shenanigans.

Gamma Phi Beta took the homecoming audience on "An Old Fashion Nevada Hayride."

The Phi Sigs' unusual lighting prevented the photographer from taking pictures but added much to the Frolic with scenes from "Below the Sea."

"Damn Yankee" was the theme of the Theta Chi's.

Artemisia-Manzanita Association dazzled the photographer so much with "Arabian Coeds" that he forgot to snap the picture.

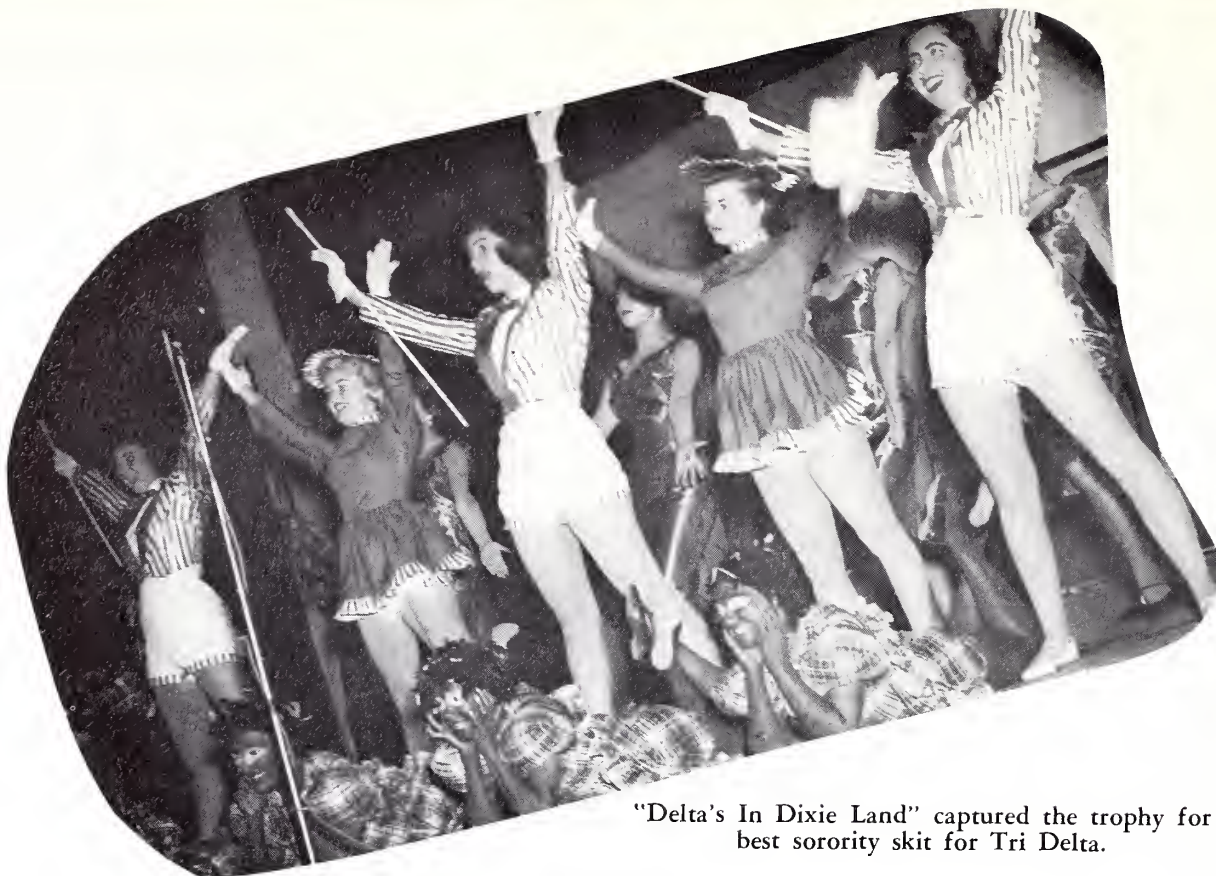

Lambda Chi's portrayed a scene "From Outer Space."

"Flying Down To Reno" was the skit the Pi Phi's presented.

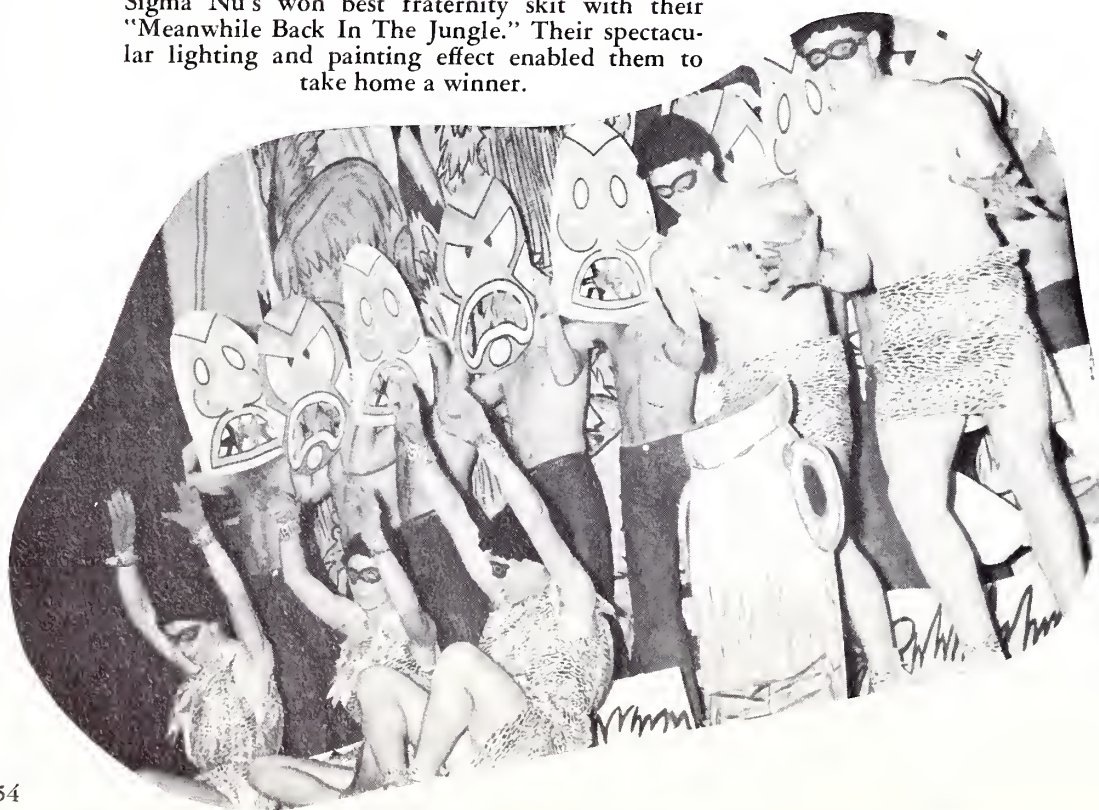

ATO's gave their interpretation of "Romeo and Juliet" in many lands.

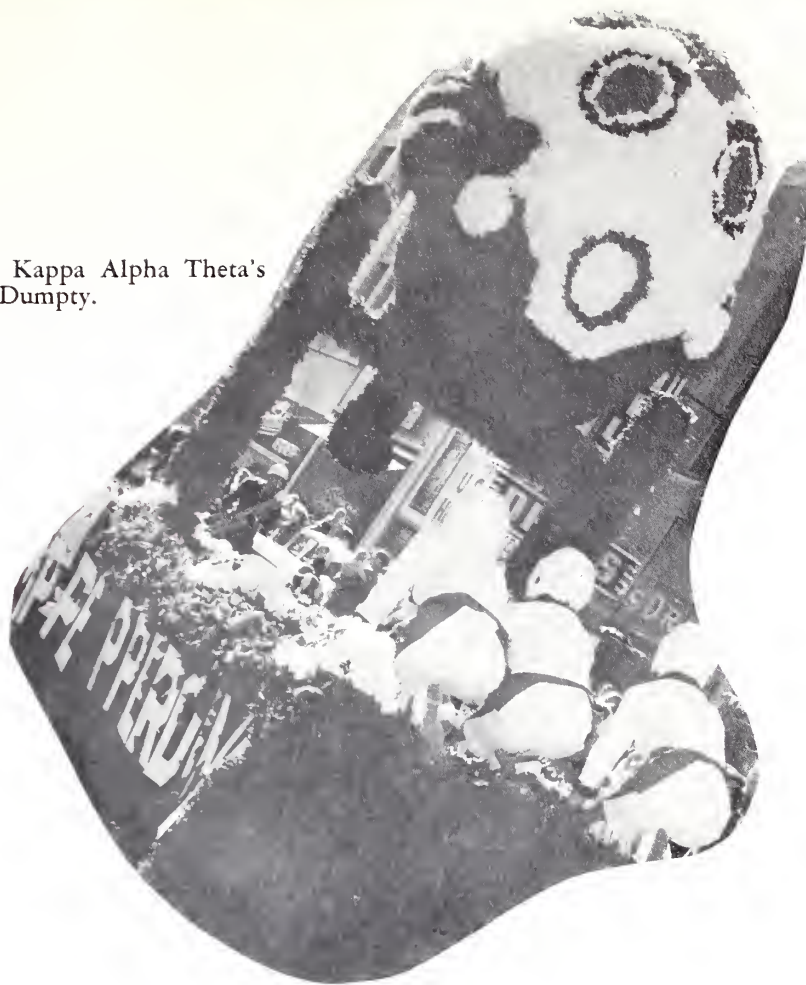

"Delta's In Dixie Land" captured the trophy for best sorority skit for Tri Delta.

winning skits

Sigma Nu's won best fraternity skit with their "Meanwhile Back In The Jungle." Their spectacular lighting and painting effect enabled them to take home a winner.

"Dump Em" was the theme of Kappa Alpha Theta's winning Humpty Dumpty.

winning floats

SAE homecoming float "Wolves Over The Waves" took the men's division for best float with Rub-a dub-dub.

home coming floats

Gamma Phi Beta's impressive float was the "Wizard of Oz."

The happy frog from the "Prince and the Frog" was the story the Tri Deltas portrayed.

"Little Red Riding Hood" was the nursery rhyme used by the Alpha Tau Omegas.

Pi Beta Phi's "Littlel Toot" lost his cap and was too late for the photographer.

Theta Chi's float was "Peter and the Wolf."

Lambda Chi's used "Cinderella" for a theme.

Sigma Nu's stepped from the pages of nursery rhymes with the "Old Lady in the Shoe."

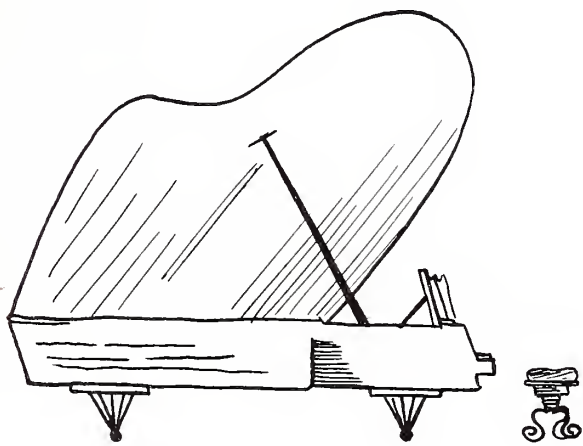

"The Ugly Duckling" was depicted by the Phi Sig float.

The community chorus, composed of the University Singers, the University Oratorical Chorus, members of various church choirs, and other members of the community put on a moving performance of Handel's Messiah.

Dr. Macy directs the Messiah.

Negatives fly, pictures are cropped, typewriters buzz, and work lasts late as deadlines close in on the yearbook once again. Strange sounds issue from the upstairs office in the ASUN building, staff members are driven crazy, the index editor pulls her hair and work continues. Eventually the '57 Artemisia is put to press and the staff can "live" again.

NEVADA 6 IDAHO STATE 20

NEVADA 19 CAL AGGIES 27

In a game that saw the lead change hands five times, the Pack succumbed to the hard fighting Aggies from California. But Brainard electrified Mackay Stadium fans with an 85 yard kick-off return that put Nevada out front 6-0. At half-time, the Pack led 19-14. In the final two periods however, the Nevada machine bogged down and the spirited aggregation from Davis scored two T.D.'s to win 27-19.

NEVADA 6 CHICO STATE 6

A determined Nevada ball club met Chico State at Chico. Early in the opening period Nevada moved down field 55 yards in fifteen plays to score on a quick opener by O'Neil Sanders to put Nevada in the lead 6-0. Playing rugged defensive ball, the Pack held Chico scoreless until an untimely Nevada fumble on the Nevada twelve yard line set up Chico's score. Late in the fourth quarter, with only ten seconds left to go, Mario Lom-mori's attempted field goal was blocked and the game ended in a 6-6 deadlock.

NEVADA 14 L. A. STATE 26

A series of fumbles and penalties stymied the Nevada attack in the first two periods of play as L. A. State rolled up a 14-0 lead. In the fourth quarter, the Wolfpack came alive on a Fujii—Alexander pass combination that netted Nevada its first score. Two more L. A. State T.D.'s however, put the icing on the cake and Bud Brainard's T.D., in the final seconds of play, was of little avail as a game Nevada team went down to defeat 26-14.

NEVADA 19 PEPPERDINE 47

4,000 fans saw Nevada roll up a 13-0 lead over the Waves from Pepperdine in the Homecoming tilt as a Nicholson-Bowser pass play followed by a 14 yard run by Vern Wagner provided the two tallies. By half-time, Pepperdine had nosed the Pack by a one point margin. In the second half, the Nevada offense was crippled by a series of penalties and interceptions with the only bright light being provided by a 35 yard run by Mario Lommori.

Nevada 20 Sac. State 21

In one of the most exciting gridiron contests of the season, Nevada capitulated to an aggressive Sac. State ball club 21-20. The opening period featured two quick T.D.'s by the Hornets which gave them a 14-0 lead. In the second period the Wolf Pack offensive sprung scatback Bud Brainard who closed the gap 14-7.

The Silver and Blue outscored the Hornets in the 2nd half on a scoring play by Gary Lundergreen and a Fujii-Whitaker pass play. With the score at 21-20 the conversion attempt failed and spelled the margin of defeat.

Nevada 18—Humboldt 26

In the season's finale, Nevada was pitted against formidable opposition from Humboldt State. Nevada's backfield stand out all season, Bud Brainard, opened the scoring in the second quarter with an end run that moved the Pack out front 6-0. Two successive Nevada fumbles, however, set up Hornet scores and Nevada trailed 13-6 at halftime. In the final half Nevada battled Humboldt on even terms with O'Neal Sanders and Ken Fujii sparking the drive with T.D.'s in the third and fourth quarters respectively.

The most frequently asked question this season was, "When will Nevada win a game?" Early in the season the Wolfpack demonstrated potential against the Rocky Mountain Conference champions from Idaho State but fate and hard luck seemed to intercede in favor of Nevada's Conference rivals all season. Head mentor Gordon McEachron sent his charges through long hours of drills only to see victory snatched from his hands on several occasions. Although this year's season was not characterized by victories in the win-loss column, Nevada's predominantly Freshman—Sophomore team gained valuable experience that will form a nucleus of a team that must be reckoned with in next year's conference play.

Another great year was acclaimed as Coach Jimmy Olivas' pugilists faced another year of formidable competition. Veteran 119 pound Sammy Macias claimed his 3rd P.C.I. Championship as he decisioned Dave Abeyta of Idaho State. Bob Genasci dropped a questionable split decision to his old nemesis Hal Espy of Idaho State in the final match. In the NCAA tourney both Macias and Genasci moved into the finals only to be decisioned by Abeyta and Espy respectively.

In a triangular meet the Air Academy at Denver handed the Nevada riflemen their first set back of the season. In the sectionals of the National Inter-collegiate rifle team championship the University of Nevada fired a 1427 to cop first place honors. In coach Dankworth's first year at the helm of Nevada's track squad it appears that Nevada has a contender for the conference championship. Early in the season Nevada's cindermen scored impressive wins over Chico State and Cal Aggies. At Stockton the U. of N. placed a close second to the traditional independent power house, College of Pacific. Sophomore Dave Harris set a new record when he vaulted 13 feet 1 inch. Dean Howes has surpassed Max Dodge's long standing discus record in practice. Nevada's cinder cyclone, Bill Bowser, is only two tenths of a second off the 220 yards low hurdles record.

Squaw and Basket has been the name of this weird tufa formation on the east side of Pyramid Lake since General John C. Fremont camped at the place over a century ago. It is one of Washoe County's oldest landmarks, and a monument to the colorful tribes which still populate this area.

Through more than eight decades of service to the State, the University of Nevada has produced men and women who have distinguished themselves in many fields of endeavor. Their achievements stand as tributes to what this University has given them, both in practical learning and cultural understanding.

Shopping at Sewell's you'll find is a Western tradition. Ask your mother, ask your grandmother. Maybe they knew us when we first started in Tuscarora, Nevada. We've expanded, we've modernized . . . but we have never outgrown the kind of personal attention to your shopping needs that's made us a family friend since 1897.

Most of us who serve you at Sewell's were born and raised right here in the West. That helps to know what you like to buy, how you like to eat. We know the kind of seasoning you want for those barbecues, the fine but not fancy foods that make for economical good eating every day of the week.

You'll find at Sewell's all the fixings for your famous Western cooking. But we're not content merely to sell them to you . . . no, ma'am! We insist upon "Serving them up" with a warm greeting, a welcoming smile that is Western hospitality at its best.

Sincerely,

SEWELL'S

Howdy Podner!

Seems like the time to wish you young folks godspeed on your educational journey comes oftener than it used to. Must be that life's speeding up and we're getting older. Certainly looks that way when you take a look at Las Vegas today and then remember what it was 10 years ago. Probably no place on earth has built up and gotten to be an established community in such a hurry. Nevada is still a land of opportunity—we're proving it every day. Keep this in mind as you plan your life ahead. Meanwhile, best wishes to the CLASS OF '56. Hope we'll be seeing you around for a long time to come.

The close of a year, the close of a book, and for some the close of a college education is marked by the passing of the '56-'57 school year. The University of Nevada of 1957 is now just a memory in the minds of those who experienced its joys, accomplishments, education and friendships. Amateur historians that we are, we hope that we have helped you to preserve your memories of this year.

During the years in college, students begin to realize the extent of the heritage of freedom that belongs to America. Ranging from the early Greek philosophers down through the Reformists of the middle ages, and into the present day of determined individuals who took time to establish the United Nations many great people and organizations have contributed to our heritage of freedom.

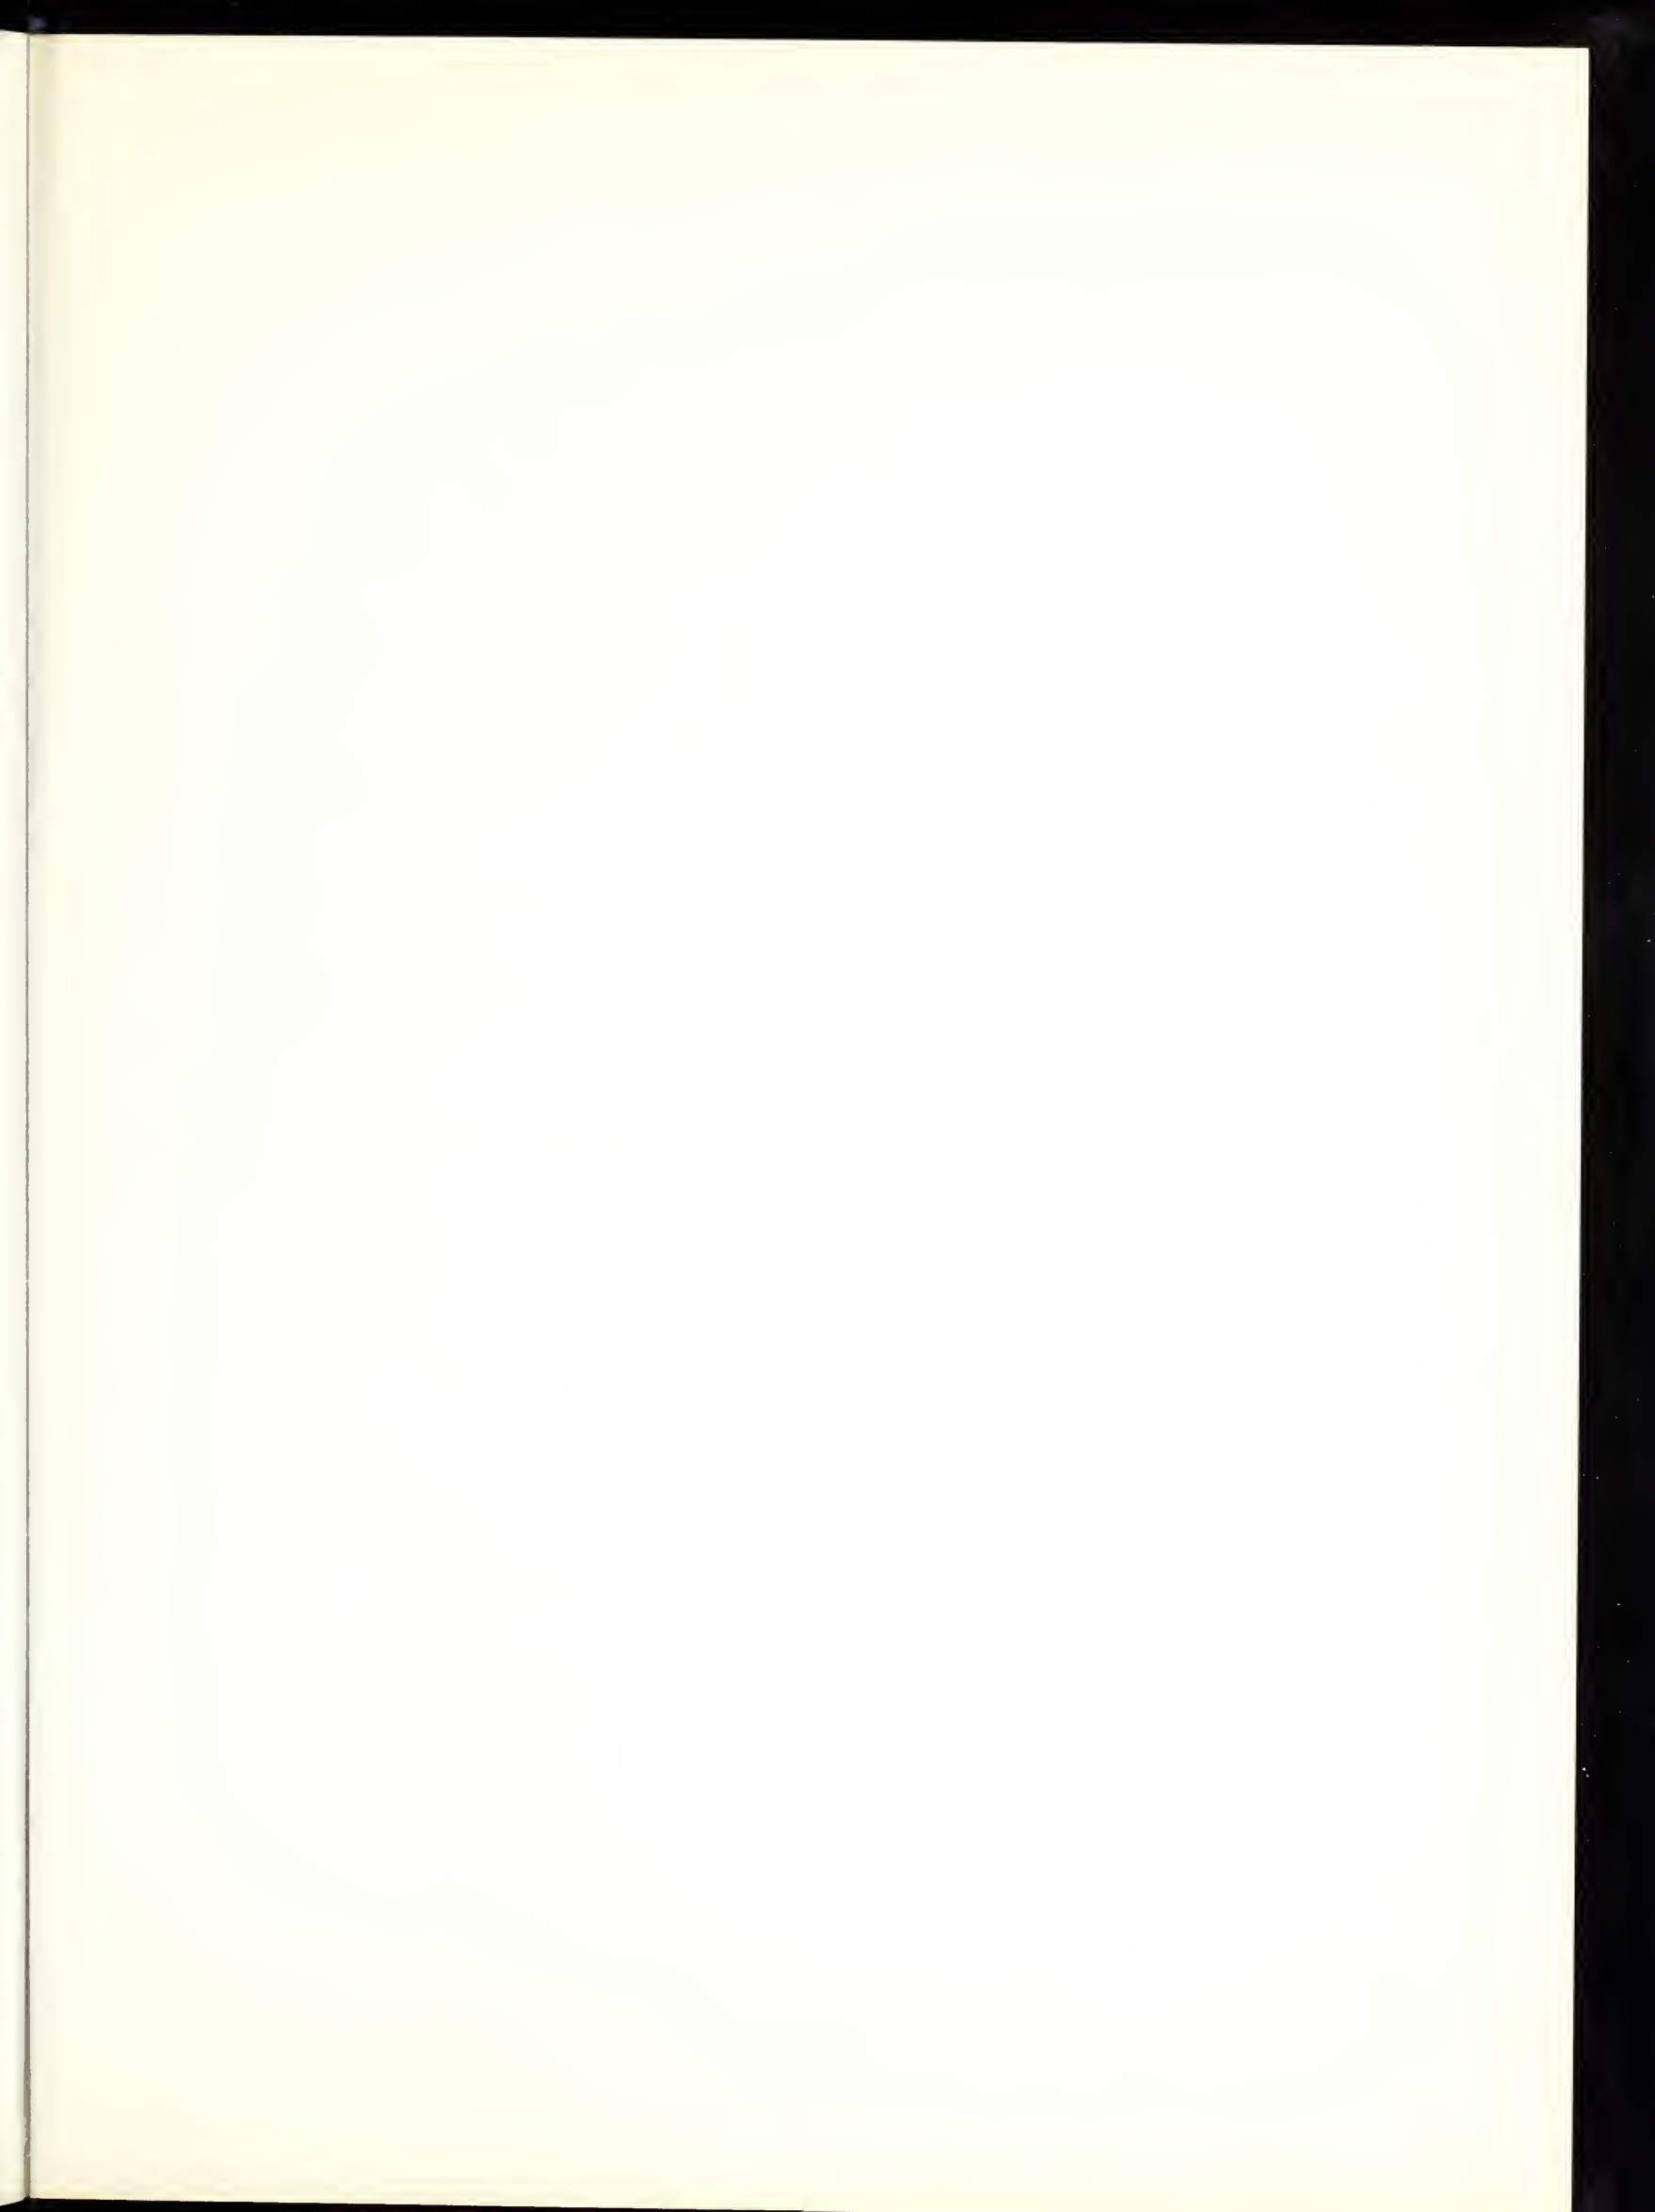

Students have the opportunity to take from college not only memories of wonderful times, but the ideals of loyalty to ideas, inquisitiveness about all creation, and perseverance which empires and individuals have willed to future generations.

To pass on to a new generation a world in better condition than we found it is not only transferring an intangible blessing, but making use of educational opportunity in the preservation of freedom. FREEDOM IS OUR HERITAGE.

Because of the many freedoms in America the ARTEMISIA is enabled to record free competition, free advertising, and ideas of free minds. Many thanks to the photographers, printers, and most of all the hardworking staff that made this book possible.

As you look in retrospect you will remember 1957 as a year of fun, a year of world conflict, and year of decisions for the United Nations, and a year in which many friends graduated from the University of Nevada to start in a country where freedom is our heritage.
